

The end-semester exams will carry a weightage of 60%, while internal assessments will account for 40%. Any form of malpractice during the examination will lead to immediate cancellation of the paper.